25. Tell us about your important people...

I spend most of my time with my boyfriend Grant. He's the funniest person I know, and makes life feel chilled out and easy. Nothing stresses him out, anxiety fears him!

My little sister, who is normally suspected to be my twin. We used to work at the same company before I came here (she's now just started working here too - we try not to make a habit of following each other!). People would all too often say hi to her in the corridor, thinking that she was me. I'm sure that will be starting up again - we take no offence! We're very similar and always have been, my built-in best friend.

My mum and dad live together in Banchory where I grew up, I've always thought they were cool parents. Up for a laugh, and want to do all the things I want to do; clubs, concerts, festivals. But they choose to live vicariously through me and my sister for now, except for concerts, they go to the bigger/better ones than me!
